

LUCAS DOLEGA AWARD 6th EDITION

Applications open: September 12th 2016

Applications close: October 30th 2016

Rules and Regulations 2017

I. TERMS AND CONDITIONS

The Lucas Dolega Award is organized by the Lucas Dolega Association, (law of 1901) - which is registered at 2, avenue Hoche, 75008 Paris France (« the Organizer ») - in partnership with the City of Paris, Olympus, the SAIF, and with the support of Reporters Without Borders, the UPP, the Atelier Label Image, Zanzibar, L'Instant Paris Match, the webmagazine Our Age is Thirteen and Freelens.

The Lucas Dolega Award is intended for freelance professional photographers. It aims to support and accompany photographers with important stories elaborated under risky conditions in order to ensure communication of free and independent information to the public.

The Award aims at rewarding a photographer who, through his or her personal commitment, involvement in the field, as well as the quality of his or her work, will have been able to testify to his or her attachment to the freedom of information.

Participants will have to present a report on the coverage of any event relevant to the defense of freedom and democratic ideal, a conflict (civil or military wars, riots, attacks or public demonstrations...), a revolution, a natural or sanitary disaster, or their consequences on civil populations.

The winner will receive an endowment by Olympus of 10,000 Euros and will have his or her work displayed at an exhibition in Paris and published in Reporter Without Borders album.

II. TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

The competition is open exclusively to professional freelance photographers of all nationalities, without age restrictions.

The term freelance is defined as a non-staff photographer, i.e. a photographer who does not work full time and exclusively for a press organization.

Submission is free subject for each Participant to accept all terms and conditions specified hereto. Any Participant who violates any of entries information set out here under shall not be considered in a position to receive the Prize.
